Dear US Embassy of Malaysia ,

I am emailing you all today to inquire as the the status of my wife's status concerning her admin processing. I am well aware that you all are not the ones responsible however I'd like to request if you all can try to find out. We are approaching our 3rd year away from each other and I ask you all to help us in this matter. More likely than not my wife's name is similar to a male that is on a watchlist, but my wife is clearly a woman.

Thank you,
Wali Khan

Dear Wali,

There have been no new developments regarding Your wife's case since your last inquiry. Your wife's visa application is still undergoing administrative processing at the U.S. Embassy in Kuala Lumpur in order to verify your wife's qualifications for this visa. Be assured that your wife will be promptly notified as soon as the administrative processing is completed.

Regards,

U.S. Embassy Kuala Lumpur*Immigrant Visa Unit (JT)KLIV@state.govHow do I transfer my case to a U.S. Embassy in another country?

If you wish to transfer the case to U.S. Embassy in another country, you should contact their immigrant visa unit to make the request (contact information for consular sections are available on specific U.S. Embassy/Consulate websites). If they approve your request, the U.S. Embassy Kuala Lumpur will then transfer the case to that U.S. Embassy/Consulate for further processing.

I have already been interviewed. How do I submit additional documents?Register at US Travel Docs:Exhibit J
